Bill To Regulate Lobbyists Signed

Stratton Also Approves Increase in Auditor Bond, Extra Hour for Voting

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — A mild lobbyist registration act and a 10-fold increase in the surety bond of the state auditor, both measures growing out of the Hodge scandal, have been signed into law by Gov. William G. Stratton.

The governor Wednesday also signed bills to give voters an extra hour to cast their ballots by extending the polls closing time from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m.; and to guarantee teachers a duty-free lunch period.

He vetoed a series of bills to provide for Monday observance of six holidays and thus provide more three-day weekends.

The lobbyist registration bill sponsored by Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) requires only that lobbyists register their names with the secretary of state at a $5 fee and that the secretary publish the names twice a week during a legislative session.

Failure to register carries a $200 penalty.

A much sterner measure was killed by the Legislature. It would further have required that lobbyists file financial reports on the money the spent trying to influence legislation.

The drive for a lobbyist registration act grew out of disclosures that former State Auditor Orville E. Hodge apparently had received a $35,000 lobbying fee paid by Union Electric Co. to a lawyer friend of Hodge.

Other Bills Signed

The other Hodge scandal reform measure signed by Stratton boosts the amount of bond surety which future state auditors must supply from the present $50,000 to $500,000.

The bill concerning teachers' lunch periods calls for a duty-free 30-minute lunch period and applies to school, where there are two or more teachers and where the school day is at least four hours.

Other bills signed: Require that the secretary or clerk of a school district must file a sworn statement that no racial or other discrimination was used in the hiring of teachers before any state aid claim can be paid to the district.

Permit two to four counties to join together in "probation districts" for the purpose of hiring a single probation officer to serve all of them.

In vetoing the Monday holiday bills Stratton said they could only "result in confusing and complicating" banking and other transactions, and that it did "not seem fitting" that Illinois, "the land of Lincoln, should take the lead in tampering with those traditions which honor our great national heroes and events."

The bills would have provided that the Lincoln and Washington's birthdays, Memorial Day, July 4th, Columbus Day and Veterans Day be observed on the Monday closest to their actual date.

Gov't Orders Production of Flu Vaccine

WASHINGTON (UP) — The government told drug manufacturers today to proceed with mass production of a vaccine effective in warding off the highly contagious "Oriental flu" now spreading throughout the world.

Working closely together, government and industry scientists developed the vaccine in a "crash program" to make it available by the start of the flu season this fall.

The Public Health Service announced Wednesday the vaccine has been tested successfully on human volunteers injected with the Oriental virus.

The service has sent specifications for the vaccine to six manufacturers expects them to begin turning out batches of shots soon.

A spokesman for the service said the vaccine, like others used in combatting influenza, is not 100 per cent effective. But it was successful enough to start production immediately.

REA Approves $860,000 Loan For the SEIEC

Thomas Clevenger, manager of the Southern Illinois Electric Co-operative in Eldorado has been notified of the approval of a $860,000 loan to the SEIEC by the Rural Electrification Administration.

The money will be used for system improvement. Mr. Clevenger stated, with none of the money earmarked for headquarter facilities or system extension.

Improvements will be made where studies indicate a heavier use of the SEIEC lines in the future and this particular loan will cover improvements scheduled through 1959.

At present the line from the Ledford substation to the area including the Saxton Coal Company south of Carrier Mills is being improved and should be completed within the next two months, it was said.

The SEIEC maintains 2,700 miles of electric lines in all or parts of nine counties, serving all rural areas in Saline, Gallatin, Hardin and Pope counties, most of Franklin county, the eastern half of Johnson, southern half of Hamilton, part of Williamson and a small part of Massac county.

Knoop Resigns As Eldorado High School Principal

W. A. Knoop

W. A. Knoop, principal of the Eldorado Township High school for the past six years, has resigned, effective July 1, it has been announced by Charles Hauser, president of the ETHS Board of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Knoop have been away from Eldorado for the past several weeks on vacation and the resignation was by letter, Mr. Hauser stated. In tendering the resignation, Mr. Knoop did not announce his future plans.

Mr. Hauser said the board had appointed J. Ward Barnes, assistant principal for several years, as acting principal.

Mr. Knoop came to Eldorado in 1951 from Whitehall. He succeeded T. C. Shoberg as principal of the Eldorado high school.

Emergency Area Declared for Southern Illinois

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's office said today 50 counties in the southern half of Illinois have been declared emergency areas as the result of recent floods to qualify farmers for low interest loans.

Gov. William G. Stratton and leaders of the Illinois Agricultural Assn. had requested the emergency area designation from the Farmers Home Administration.

Farmers in the 50-county area may apply for 3 per cent interest loans from the FHA.

Heavy spring rains and floods have washed out crops in lowland areas and delayed planting across a large part of the state.

Only Wednesday, the State-Federal Crop Reporting Service said this year's corn crop would total only about 430 million bushels — less than three-fourths of the bumper 1956 crop.

IAA President Otto Steffy made a flying tour of the flood area to gather evidence to support his request that the 50 counties be declared an emergency area.

Steffy reported after his tour that crop losses in southern and southwestern Illinois would range as high as 50 per cent.

Four Injured In Auto Mishap On Highway 34

Four persons were admitted to the Lightner hospital about 10 p. m. Wednesday for treatment for injuries received in an accident on Route 34 between Galatia and Raleigh.

Mrs. Nethawa Fusselman, 108 East McHane, Harrisburg, remained in the hospital this morning but the other three were released.

The accident occurred when the right front tire of the 1950 Dodge in which they were passengers blew out, causing the automobile to leave the highway and crash into a bridge abutment.

Mrs. Fusselman and Dale Curtis, Galatia, employed in Manteno, were returning to their homes for a visit. In West Frankfort they were joined by Alfred Spears, a friend, who was driving, at the time of the accident.

And in Galatia they picked up three other boys who were looking for a ride to Harrisburg.

Injured in addition to Mrs. Fusselman, were Curtis, Spears and John Williams of Galatia. The other two with Williams, names not known, were uninjured.

The four injured people were brought to Lightner by ambulance from the Courtney funeral home.

State Patrolman Mike Taggart and Saline county Deputy Sheriff Everett Sneed and Charles Donelson were called to the hospital and received details of the accident from the injured.

Spears was given a ticket today for operating a vehicle without a license.

The front of the Dodge was considerably damaged.

Robert Evans is Named Ass't Director Of Public Information at U. of Illinois

Robert W. Evans, 35, McLeansboro newspaper editor, has been named assistant director of public information at the University of Illinois effective August 1, President David D. Henry announced today.

A graduate of the University of Illinois School of Journalism, Evans has been editor and manager of the McLeansboro Times-Leader since July, 1948. He is immediate past president of the Southern Illinois Editorial Association.

Edward E. Kirkpatrick, business manager of The Daily Register for three years ending June, 1955, has been named to succeed Evans, has purchased Evans' stock in The Times-Leader and the Evans residence in McLeansboro.

Kirkpatrick has been night editor of the Frankfort, Ind. Morning Times since he left Harrisburg.

Evans is a native of Eldorado. During World War II he was with the U. S. Army for three years, serving with a combat unit, the 10th division in Italy. He received the Bronze Star and three battle stars.

Robert W. Evans

He is a member of the Illinois Press Association and of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity. He is married and the father of three children.

Floods, Controls, Soil Bank

Agriculture Department Estimates Lowest Crop Production Since 1951

WASHINGTON (UP) — A combination of adverse weather, production controls, and the soil bank may cut the 1957 total crop to its lowest level since 1951.

The Agriculture Department said in the first production report for the season that floods and excessive rain damaged prospects for corn, cotton, soybeans, and other crops. The adverse weather also forced harvesting delays resulting in reduced yields of many early ripening fall grains.

But the report issued Wednesday said "some improvement in prospects is possible if favorable conditions predominate for growth, maturity, and harvest" the rest of the season.

"Soil moisture has been abundant to excessive over much larger areas than last year," it pointed out. "This abundance could offset later losses from drought and heat. Irrigation water supplies are best in recent years."

This comment seemed to indicate Agriculture Department officials believe this year's total crop could be larger than the report estimated. The report, based on July 1 prospect, said total farm output could drop to 16 per cent below last season.

The department estimated a corn crop of 3,011,912,000 bushels — 13 per cent below last year and 3 per cent below average. This would be the lowest since 1951.

Illinois Crop Estimates Off

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Illinois' 1957 corn crop will total about 430 million bushels — less than three-fourths of 1956 bumper crop, the State Federal Crop Reporting Service forecasts today.

The 1957 crop will be about 10 per cent smaller than the average for the past 16 years.

Yields will be about 52 bushels per acre — about 16 bushels less than last year.

Illinois farmers have planted about 8,300,000 acres in corn, compared with 8,800,000 last year.

The state crop outlook is generally poorer than last year and "all major crops have been adversely affected in varying degrees by excessive, ill-timed rains," the service said.

No production forecast will be made for soybeans until next month. But the service said a record high 5,100,000 acres have been planted in soybeans.

A 43-million-bushel wheat crop was forecast, compared with 59 million bushels last year and a 10 year average of 38 million bushels.

The oat crop estimate was placed at 125 million bushels, 13 per cent smaller than last year.

The hay crop estimate was 4,700,000 tons, compared with about 5 million tons last year.

Two Youths Seized At Gunpoint, Report Being Whipped

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UP) — Two carloads of armed white men abducted two Negro youths at gunpoint Wednesday night, took them to a wooded area and whipped them with a garden hose, it was reported today.

The youths, Harold Cunningham, 19, and Henry Siler, 21, returned home early today after a walk of "about five miles" from where the men released them to where they caught a city bus.

The two youths and two girls, Loretta, Washington, 19, and Aileen Brown, 23, were out riding Wednesday night and drove into a white drive-in restaurant for refreshments but decided it was too crowded and left.

Cunningham said they noticed two cars following them and their pursuers forced them to the curb.

Congressmen Urge Tighter Passport Rules

WASHINGTON (UP) — Congressmen called today for tightening of passport rules to prevent such cases as suspected spies slipping out of the country.

Assistant Attorney General William F. Tompkins meantime made plans to fly to France in a personal effort to obtain extradition of an accused American husband-and-wife spy team. The couple — Russian-born George Zlatovski, 47, and his American born wife, Jane, 45 — were indicted Monday on charges of spying for the Soviet Union.

Legislators were upset because Mrs. Zlatovski managed to get a passport which let her slip out of the United States even though the FBI was wise to the couple's alleged activities.

Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) said a court decision virtually forced Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to grant a passport to Mrs. Zlatovski even though he was aware of the spy charges against her.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton (R-Ky.), a former assistant secretary of state, said Mrs. Zlatovski's passport expired while she was visiting her mother in San Francisco after living in Paris since 1949. He said the FBI told a State Department board "it would be a dangerous thing for the security of the country if she was allowed to return to Paris."

She then went to court, Morton said, and won a passport because the government decided "it was more important to safeguard the (FBI) files than to prevent her return to Paris."

Expect Malenkov's Accomplices To Join Him in Virtual Exile

LONDON (UP) — A Communist correspondent in Moscow reported today that Georgi Malenkov's accomplices will join him in virtual exile — Vyacheslav Molotov as a factory manager.

Molotov would get a menial job under his own student and former deputy, Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko according to the authoritative report published in the Danish Communist Party organ, Land og Volk.

It said Dmitri Shepilov, ousted from the Communist Party secretariat as a lesser "anti-party" figure, would become a professor.

Earlier, London observers said Malenkov's exile to head a remote power station, about 2,000 miles from Moscow had saved him and the rest of the group, which had opposed Soviet Communist Party chief Nikita Khrushchev, from a firing squad.

Wednesday night, Moscow Radio said Malenkov had been given control of a lone power station at Ust-Kamenogorsk in the republic of Kazakhstan, a stone's throw from Siberia. It said the others had been "transferred to other work," but gave no details.

Ruling Approves Overseas Trials For Servicemen

8-Man Tribunal Reverses Decision By District Court

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Supreme Court today approved the government's decision to turn Army Specialist William S. Girard over to Japan for manslaughter trial.

The historic unanimous decision upheld the government's right to send American servicemen abroad and expose them to trial in foreign courts in certain cases.

The eight-man high tribunal reversed a District Court ruling that the government had violated the Ottawa, Ill., soldier's constitutional rights in agreeing to let Japan try him for an "on-duty" offense.

It declared that American soldiers take overseas only those constitutional trial rights that the host country specifically grants them. Japan has reserved the right to try "on duty" violations of its laws by U. S. troops there in cases it considers of "particular importance."

Under this reservation in the U. S.-Japan status of forces agreement, Japan demanded and the United States finally agreed to the soldier's trial in a Japanese court.

Girard is charged by Japan with causing the death of Mrs. Naka Sakai, whom Girard admitted shooting in the back with a cartridge hurled by a grenade launcher. She was scavenging empty shells on a firing range where Girard was on guard duty.

The decision averted chaos in America's global defense alliances.

If the high court had ruled against the government it would have forced renegotiation of clauses in the status of forces agreements with a score of Allied nations where U. S. troops are based. Administration officials believed that few, if any, countries would waive completely their right to try visiting troops in peacetime.

The result, the government warned, would have been a diplomatic deadlock forcing the United States to withdraw its troops and planes from many vital foreign bases, jeopardizing U. S. and free world security.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said after hearing the verdict, "There is every reason to believe that his trial in the Japanese court will be conducted with utmost fairness."

Girard will remain in U. S. Army custody at Camp Whittington, Japan, until his Japanese trial begins the latter part of August.

Girard's Washington attorney, Dayton M. Harrington, declined comment.

About Town

And Country
By TIMOTHY T.

Every year about this time Timothy T. goes on vacation and yours truly—Bill Melton—takes over his news beat and just hopes nothing big happens.

I also take advantage of Tim's absence and make a stab at writing at least one of the About Town columns he authors during the year. If I get through this one may try it again.

Last Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Dallas of Dallas, Texas community were in The Daily Register office and the conversation got around to flowers. They said they had a very pretty flower garden and would be happy if it would come out and see it. Promised them I would do it and Wednesday afternoon made the trip.

The Dallas' have a large flower garden and particularly beautiful at this time are six long rows of zinnias. And promising to be eye-pleasing in a very short time are several well-kept rows of marigolds. The latter are just beginning to bloom and by next week should be a beautiful sight.

Other varieties in the flower garden include nasturtiums, gladioli, snapdragons, cannas, dahlias and roses.

Funny thing. I am an admirer of flowers, but not a student. Believe I knew only the nasturtiums and roses by name. Mrs. Dallas had to identify all the others.

While on my way to the Dewey Dallas home I found out first hand what one of the area coaches is doing this summer.

Saw Bob Dallas, a resident of Dallas and Ridgeway coach, driving a tractor and interrupted him for a few minutes. For once Bob wasn't too interested in talking athletics. More interested in crops at this time.

He was getting a 20-acre tract ready for soybeans. Said he had about 70 acres of corn planted and up and it needed planting. But Bob was taking advantage of the sunny weather to get the bean field prepared. Like all other

Ends Fabulous Career

Aga Khan, Moslem Religious Leader, Wealthy Ex-Father-In-Law Of Rita Hayworth, Dies

VERSIOX, Switzerland (UP) — The Aga Khan died today at the age of 79, ending a fabulous career as Moslem religious leader, millionaire sportsman and ex father-in-law of Rita Hayworth.

He died of a heart attack. He may be succeeded by Prince Aly Khan as spiritual leader of 10 million Moslems of the Ismailia sect who showed their devotion each 10 years by weighing him in gold, platinum or diamonds.

To the West the Aga Khan was an aristocratic playboy and horse breeder, a friend of kings. To the East he was almost a god, revered by millions.

Estimates of his wealth ranged up to more than a billion and a half dollars but when queried about his great holdings he only laughed.

He had been ill for the past few years, and his condition worsened a few months ago. During the recent European heat wave he was brought to his mountain villa here in hopes the coolness would save his life.

But he steadily worsened, and this morning five doctors announced that his condition had seriously weakened during the night. The bulletin—the first issued—was the first confirmation of the fact he lay near death.

Prince Aly and his younger brother Sadruddin were summoned from Geneva shortly after midnight when the end appeared near. Aly was in Geneva with his daughter Princess Yasmin, daughter of Rita Hayworth, for a visit with "grandpa."

Sadruddin was in Geneva for his marriage Monday to a beautiful British model—a wedding certain now to be postponed.

Sadruddin—also mentioned as a possible heir in case Aly should not prove acceptable—was engaged to Nina Dyer, a former London fashion model and the ex-wife of multi-millionaire Baron Heinrich von Thyssen.

The Aga Khan himself had married a succession of beautiful women. His widow, the Begum Aga Khan, herself was once chosen Miss France.

The Aga Khan, famed as a statesman as well as a religious leader, was the 44th lineal descendant of the prophet Mohammed and sacred to the Ismaili sect.

His doctors ordered a change of air because the heat in France was causing him serious respiratory troubles. The temperature was in the 90's and he was a man of more than 200 pounds.

He moved to his lakeside Villa Barakat on June 18, but the heat wave spread to Switzerland, too, and he found no relief.

He spent part of his time on a bed in a tent set up in front of his great villa, fighting for breath.

Cooler weather set in this morning but it was too late. His heart was weakened by many months of illness and the many nights with out sleep and it gave up the struggle for life.

The news of his death was reported by a member of his staff who came to the entrance gate of Villa Barakat and told newsmen "he has died from a heart attack 10 minutes ago."

Predict Shortages By Cement Strikes

CHICAGO (AP)—Industry spokesmen predicted today that the nationwide cement strikes will cause spot cement shortages within the next week.

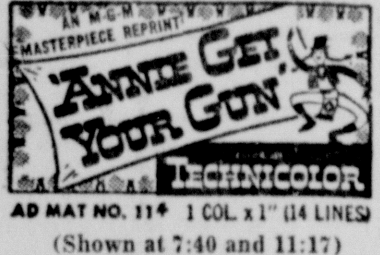

The strikes have idled about 15,000 workers at 70 plants, and chances of an early settlement appeared remote.

Lester Crown, vice president of Material Service Corp., a major supplier of building materials, said a cement shortage would begin to show Chicago area construction in about 10 days.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Marshal Zhukov May Come To Washington: Majority Of Eisenhower Cabinet Don't Smoke: Quickie Tax Write-Off Helps Stockholders.

WASHINGTON. — One thing you can expect to come out of the crisis in the Kremlin is a visit by Marshal Zhukov, to Washington.

It has been known that the President has been talking for some time about inviting Marshal Zhukov to the United States. He felt that the former Russian commander in Berlin was a man who could understand straight-from-the-shoulder old soldier talk. And the President, as an old soldier, cherishes as his dearest ambition the hope of bringing peace to the world.

In the past, however, State Department and Central Intelligence advisers have discouraged an invitation to Marshal Zhukov. They said he wasn't important enough in the Soviet set-up.

Now things have changed. Zhukov has been elevated to the Presidency, has thrown his weight behind Khrushchev, is one of the top men in the Kremlin. He could now be invited to Washington as Russian minister of defense without any necessity of a return visit by Eisenhower, as would be the case with Khrushchev and Bulganin.

So don't be surprised if Marshal Zhukov comes to Washington.

NEWS NUGGETS

Another Mellon — The White House secretly sounded out the late Andrew Mellon's nephew, Richard K. Mellon, about following in his uncle's footsteps as secretary of the treasury. Andrew Mellon served in the Harding-Coolidge-Hoover cabinets, set the fiscal policies that led to the last depression. Outgoing Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey recommended the Mellon heir as his successor. But Richard balked. He wasn't ready to take on the job yet, he said. Mellon has been doing a fine job for the rejuvenation of his home town—Pittsburgh—in cooperation with Mayor David Lawrence, Democrat.

Nonsmoking Cabinet—It won't please the tobacco companies, but a majority of Ike's cabinet has sworn off cigarettes. Following the American Cancer Society's alarming report on smoking, the President asked his cabinet how many still smoked. Only four admitted they did: Secretary of Defense Wilson, Attorney General Brownell, Secretary of Labor Mitchell and Secretary of Interior Seaton. The remaining six members, plus Vice President Nixon, claimed they don't smoke. Ike said he handed his last pack to a friend several years ago and hasn't touched a cigarette since.

Pentagon Censorship — Secretary of Defense Wilson has been blue-penciling his subordinates' speeches. Most often gagged have been Arleigh Burke, the Navy chief, who has had nine speeches censored, and Secretary of the Army Wilbur Brucker who has had to revise seven speeches, all since the first of the year. Wilson ordered them bluntly to change their speeches or throw them away. Burke has had trouble before. He was head of the secret Navy propaganda office "Operation 23," set up to work against the Air Force. As a result, President refused to promote him, finally did so after great pressure from the Naval lobby.

UNDER THE DOME

Idaho's 32-year-old Sen. Frank Church, the baby of the Senate, wowed his colleagues with his maiden speech on Hells Canyon.

Even Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana, who'd been against Hells Canyon, listened carefully. Later he voted with Church. . . . Another freshman who impressed colleagues with his first speech is California's Congressman D. S. Saund, first Hindu ever elected to Congress. He delivered a short but stirring speech on civil rights. He told how he not only won his citizenship but a seat in Congress, though he was a Hindu born in India. "My opponent said that if I were elected to Congress, because of the color of my skin the southern members would not accept me," Saund said. "But I wanted to show the world that in Uncle Sam's family there are no foster children. I bear testimony to the fact that the gentleman from Oklahoma, Carl Albert, came from his state and campaigned for me: the gentleman from North Carolina, Harold Cooley, sent telegrams on my behalf; and the gentleman from Tennessee, Jere Cooper, put me on the powerful Foreign Affairs committee. They all come from southern states." . . . Then Saund turned to his southern friends and added softly: "My wife lets me sleep until 6:15, but when the clock goes beyond that, the sheets and the blankets are off me. She stands there and she says, 'Honey, you are holding up the game.' No one is against those leaders from the south who have shown so much brilliance and patriotism. . . . All we are saying is: Please modify your way of thinking. Look at the clock. Go ahead and don't hold the game up."

QUICKIE TAX WRITE-OFFS

You're going to hear a lot more about the quickie tax write-offs given to big utilities. They're hard for the public to understand because they involve complicated finance, not hams or deep-freezes. However, the loss to the taxpayer runs into millions.

Sen. Estes Kefauver has just asked the Federal Power Commission to investigate the manner in which public utilities used the money they saved through quickie tax write-offs. The findings are interesting.

The purpose of the quickie tax write-off is to give a company more money in time of war or emergency for expansion not needed in times of peace. The idea was worked out when the Packard Motor Co., a year before Pearl Harbor, refused to expand its plant to make airplane motors because it argued it wouldn't need the plant after the war. So the government agreed to write-off the cost of the plant in five years; thus Packard would not be paying taxes on an empty, unused plant after the war was over.

However, the Power commission report sent to Kefauver shows that the utilities have been using this tax savings to declare dividends. In fact, Ebasco, the big utility management concern, has been advising clients to do this.

This means that American taxpayers, through the much-abused fast tax write-off, are paying part of utilities' dividends to stockholders. Or to put it another way, if your neighbor up the street has invested in utility stocks, he will be getting dividends from the money you pay in taxes.

Chain Barrier

During the Revolutionary War, the British were prevented from sailing up the Hudson River by a huge chain, which was hung across the river between Constitution Island and Gee's Point.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed is the name of the Lord, Job 1:21.

The book of Job may be one of the oldest books of the Bible, it is probable that it was repeated by story tellers for hundreds of years by desert camp fires before it appeared in a printed book. In any event scholars regard it as one of the finest bits of literature in the world, and it taught a faith and understanding unsurpassed.

Miss Helen Carol Richmond, William Dale Drone Exchange Marriage Vows

Mr. and Mrs. William Dale Drone

Miss Helen Carol Richmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Richmond of 510 South Granger street, Harrisburg, and William Dale Drone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Drone of Ridgway, were married in St. Mary's Catholic church by the Rev. T. G. Bruns at nine o'clock in the morning of June 27. The double-ring ceremony was performed before the altar, decorated with arrangements of white and yellow gladioli and greenery, and the communion rail was wound with ivy.

The bride wore a waltz-length wedding gown of white embroidered organza, styled with a fitted jacket and full skirt tiered of the embroidered material. Her veil of illusion was secured with a tiara seed pearls and rhinestones. The bride's bouquet of white Marguerite daisies, was a cascade tied with streamers of light blue satin ribbons.

She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas A. Clore of Carbondale, served as her matron of honor and wore a gown of dusty-rose taffeta. Her colonial bouquet was fashioned of Carol Ambling roses and pink pom-poms.

Thomas Drone, brother of the bridegroom, acted as his best man. Carl Drone and Martin Drone, brothers of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore navy blue linen with matching hat of lace and sheer material, and navy blue gloves. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a grey and white bemberg sheer dress for her son's wedding, with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. John Molinarolo Jr. was organist and played, "Panis Angelicus," "Jesus, Jesus, Come To Me" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

There was a reception held in the church hall, decorated with stands of greenery and white and yellow gladioli. The bride's table held the wedding cake, encircled with plumosa and yellow pom-poms. Plumosa was draped on the cloth, complemented with yellow pom-poms and streamers of yellow satin ribbons. Punch bowls were on either end of the table.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Victor Humm, Mrs. Guy Hargett and Mrs. Walter Unsell. Mrs. Carl Drone kept the guest book, Mrs. Clarence Etienne and Mrs. Thomas Drone served the cake and the punch bowls were attended by Miss Sally Russler and Miss Nancy Farley of Paducah.

The Philathea Sunday school class of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. Willie Miller, 619 North Jackson street, at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. The meeting opened with a hymn and the prayer led by Mrs. Roy Chamberlain. The devotional reading was taken from Acts II, and given by Mrs. Della McDonald, class teacher. Mrs. Ernestine Brinkley closed the meeting with prayer.

Refreshments of angel food cake and coffee were served by the hostess and the following attended, in addition to those already named: Mrs. Essie Holloway, Mrs. Earl Robb, Mrs. Reba English, Mrs. Carl Cooley and son, Mrs. Bruce Baker, Mrs. Loren Fleming, Mrs. Evadeen Woodruff, Mrs. Clifford Burklow, Mrs. Calvin Blackman and Mrs. Jesse Gibbons.

Gov. Stratton Praises Hollingsworth At Dinner for State Financial Director

JOLIET, Ill. (UP) — Gov. William G. Stratton praised Morton G. Hollingsworth as "the most essentially honest man I have ever had the pleasure of dealing with on state or local levels" at a testimonial dinner held for the state financial director.

Stratton, the main speaker at the $15 a plate roast beef dinner, told 1,000 Republicans gathered to pay homage to Hollingsworth Wednesday night that "as a member of my cabinet, Hollingsworth has exhibited honesty, devotion to duty, loyalty and ability in an exacting job."

Telegrams from President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon lauded Hollingsworth for his "firm hand and stout heart" in working "for the success of the Republican organization."

Stratton also praised Rep. Warren Wood, Springfield, speaker of the House and toastmaster at the dinner, for the accomplishments of the recently adjourned general assembly, "the greatest in the history of the (Illinois) Legislature."

Hollingsworth was presented with a color TV set and a silver cup. Addressing the group he thanked them for their expression of confidence and said he could not find words adequate to the occasion.

He acknowledged the assistance of his wife, Rowena, and added, "I would be remiss not to mention the great assistance of the people in the organization."

Among those present were Vernon L. Nickell, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Lt. Gov. and Mrs. John G. Chapman, and Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter.

Money derived from the affair goes to the Will County Republican Central Committee fund.

Mrs. W. D. Ozment Dies at Marion

Mrs. Susan Ozment, 80, widow of W. D. Ozment, died at 11:15 p. m. Wednesday in the Marion Memorial hospital. Mrs. Ozment and her late husband had operated the funeral home at 800 North Market street, now the Mitchell funeral home in Marion, for many years and she was living there with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mitchell, present operators of the funeral home.

The funeral will be held in the chapel of the Mitchell funeral home at 2 p. m. Saturday and the body will lie in state there at 7 p. m. today. Burial will be in the Marion I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. Ozment was the sister of Perry Thompson of Harrisburg and George Thompson of Carrier Mills.

'Clean' Bomb Statement Hit By Khrushchev

PRAGUE (UP) — Soviet Communist Party chief Nikita Khrushchev attacked President Eisenhower today for speaking "stupidities" about a "clean" H-bomb.

"How can there be clean bombs for dirty things?" he asked.

Khrushchev also hinted that he will meet again soon with Yugoslavia's President Tito, one of the leaders of the policy of "independent socialism" free from Moscow control.

The burly Khrushchev, in an off-the-cuff speech at the "Stalingrad" metal works here during the current visit to Czechoslovakia by him and Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin, also promised the Soviet bloc outside Russia that "we won't criticize you if you don't criticize us."

On the H-bomb, he was critical of President Eisenhower's statement last week that American scientists hope to perfect an H-bomb free from radioactive fallout dangers.

"Eisenhower is a man of principle and integrity but look what stupidities he says when he speaks of a clean hydrogen bomb," Khrushchev said. "How can there be clean bombs for dirty things? Bombs mean wholesale annihilation of children and women."

"What a contradiction to call dirty things clean?"

Car on Illinois Highway

RED BUD, Ill. (UP) — Russell Henry Payne, 62, Ostry, Fla., died Wednesday, apparently of a heart attack, while driving his car on Ill. 3 eight miles south of Waterloo.

State police said he lost control of the car, which struck an embankment.

Ask New Judge For Murder Trial

SALEM, Ill. (UP) — Attorneys for a teen-aged defendant in a murder case here have petitioned that a new judge be named for the trial scheduled to begin Oct. 22.

Attorneys said Trudy Jo Baker, 17, felt Circuit Judge Ward Holt was "prejudiced" against her. Trudy Jo and her husband, Robert, 26, Wormleysburg, Pa., are charged with murder in the killing of Marine Pvt. Larry M. Kirk, 21, Winslow, Ind., last December.

Holt previously had denied defense motions to quash the murder indictment against Trudy Jo and to give her a new hearing in County Court.

Freedom of Information Bill is Signed

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Gov. William G. Stratton today signed into law a "freedom of information" bill applying to meetings of local, county and state government units.

The governor also signed bills for a new centralized state purchasing system, and to ban racial discrimination on public golf courses.

He vetoed bills to provide for hiring of auxiliary state police for weekend and holiday highway patrol, and to extend the absentee voting privilege to persons whose religious tenets would keep them from the polls.

The "freedom of information" bill originally was drawn along the lines of a model law proposed by Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity.

But it was amended and weakened by the Legislature so that it does not apply to "informal" meetings or "caucuses" of governmental bodies where no public business is actually transacted.

The bill requires that all meetings of governmental units at which business is transacted must be open to the public. It provides a fine of $100 or a 30-day jail sentence or both, for violations.

Plane Crashes in Alaska; Six Dead

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UP) — Federal investigators sifted through the charred wreckage of a twin-engine aircraft at King Salmon, Alaska, today, seeking the cause of a crash which killed six persons.

Witnesses at King Salmon, about 300 miles southwest of here, said the Lockheed Lodestar made a normal takeoff Wednesday morning, but suddenly shot into a vertical climb. They said one or both engines apparently quit and the craft plunged nose down into the runway.

All those aboard were trapped in the ensuing explosion and flames.

Army Finally Gets Own Flag

WASHINGTON (UP) — The U. S. Army, after 182 years, has finally got a flag of its own.

The first of the new red, white and blue flags, was presented to President Eisenhower at a White House rose garden ceremony Wednesday. Until now, each branch of Army service has had a separate flag, with no unified symbol. From its standard fluttered 145 battle streamers representing every Army campaign from Ticonderoga to Korea.

Eisenhower, a soldier for 41 years, said the streamers tell the history not only of the Army but "very largely the history of the development of the United States."

Employment at New High in June

WASHINGTON (UP) — The government today reported that employment across the nation in June hit a record peak for the month at 66,500,000.

The figure was up 1,300,000 over May, according to a Commerce and Labor departments report. The increase was due almost entirely to the rush of school-age youngsters into summer jobs, the report said.

Unemployment also rose by 600,000 over May totals to 3,300,000. Here again the accent was on youth, the report noted.

The unemployment figure reflected the influx of youngsters as job-seekers. Persons with temporary layoffs of less than 30 days and students waiting for work now are included in the unemployment figure.

Farm employment continued to pace the seasonal job rise in June with 900,000 new workers added. It brought the agricultural employment total to 7,500,000.

Total employment outside agriculture also hit a new June peak of 59 million, the report stated.

Manufacturing employment rose by 80,000 to 16,800,000. This was somewhat smaller than the usual June increase.

Average weekly factory earnings climbed 81 cents to $82.59 in June reflecting a longer work

Mother of Two Wins

Trans-continental

Powder Puff Derby

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — Mrs. Alice Roberts, Phoenix, Ariz., and her co-pilot, Mrs. Iris Critchell, Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., today were named winners of the 11th trans-continental Powder Puff Derby.

The lady pilots averaged a top ground speed of 188 miles per hour over the 2,567 mile route from San Mateo, Calif., to North Philadelphia Airport.

Mrs. Roberts, who has over 550 hours flying time placed second in the annual all-women race the past two years. Mrs. Roberts, mother of two children, is the wife of a pilot. Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Critchell will receive a trophy and $800 first place prize.

The second team was Mrs. Doris Eacret, Elko, Nev., and Mrs. Jean Parker Rose, Arcadia, Calif. Their average ground speed was 138 miles per hour. Second place winners will receive $600 and a trophy.

farmers he is far behind in his work due to the extreme wet spring and summer.

Back to the subject of flowers. Have you noticed the beautiful petunia bed at the northeast corner of Vine and Locust streets.

It is the pride and joy of Tom Pearce, of the Pearce and Knight barber shop.

It is rumored a practical joker sowed a dime's worth of mustard seed in the petunia bed. But Tom didn't let that bother him. He just kept an eagle eye on the bed and every time a mustard plan appeared it was pulled out by the roots.

The petunias really add to the beauty of the uptown business district and Tom deserves a hearty "thank you."

Study Possible Charge of Reprisal Against Bob Feller

WASHINGTON — Baseball's bigwigs, already under fire by congressional investigators for alleged monopolistic practices, today faced a possible "intimidation" charge.

Rep. Patrick J. Hillings (R-Calif.) disclosed Wednesday that staff investigators of the House Anti-Trust Subcommittee have started a check to determine if baseball owners and officials are "intimidating" Bob Feller because of his recent critical testimony before a House committee.

The disclosure came about after Feller was prevented from holding a baseball clinic for youngsters in Brooklyn Dodger-owned Wrigley Field in Los Angeles this week. Hillings' statement brought on

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Chairs seem to become hard and uncomfortable when we sit on them for long periods of time. They feel most uncomfortable when we are listening to boring discussions or to uninteresting lectures. When the mind becomes uneasy, the body also becomes restless.

There is a synchronized reaction of the mind and the body to weariness. Likewise the spirit becomes weary when our mental and physical reactions are not satisfying.

When we find spiritual satisfaction, we find ease and mental relaxation. This relief of body, mind and soul depends so deeply on our relationship of Godly love that it behooves us to discover God's will and God's way for daily living.

40th Anniversary Meeting by Saline Singing Association

The Saline County Singing Association held its 40th anniversary meeting at the Sulphur Springs Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Clyde Vinard opened the meeting with prayer and the congregation joined in singing, led by the vice-chairman Thomas Grant, Earl Hicks, Mr. Ping and George Ferrell took an active part in this part of the program.

More congregational singing was led by chairman Raymond Allen assisted by Joe Barnett, Kressa Church and Rev. Jonah Reynolds.

Special music included a solo by Dottie Young, accompanied at the piano by Bonnie Billman. There were other solos by Rev. Vinard, Bonnie Billman, and a duet by Dottie and Bonnie Billman.

A. A. Moore talked about the organization of the association and made a memorial address for Horace M. Ferrell, who lost his life in service. Mr. Moore led in the singing of "God Bless America" and "America" as the final numbers of the meeting.

Rev. John Beggs led the closing prayer.

Autos Contribute Nothing to Sound Scholarship, 3 SIU Faculty Members Agree

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—Three Southern Illinois University faculty members have agreed that the automobile "contributes nothing to sound scholarship."

That, they said, is an understatement.

E. C. Coleman, chief student academic adviser; I. Clark Davis, acting director of student affairs, and E. G. Lenz, emeritus professor, summed up their conclusions in an article, "Shall Joe's Car Go to College?" in the summer issue of the American Association of University Professors Bulletin.

When students cars are not crowding campus parking places, the authors said, they are transporting their owners on excursions beyond the reach of campus authority.

City officials also are faced with parking and traffic control problems aggravated by the influx of students' automobiles, the article said.

"The coefficient of correlation of classroom performance to student car ownership has not yet been determined," the professors said. "A safe inference, however, greatly understated, is that the car contributes nothing to sound scholarship."

Autos will be taboo for freshmen during the 1957-58 academic year at SIU. The ban will include other classes in succeeding years until only the physically handicapped and commuting students will be permitted to park on campus.

Pilgrim Strategy
PLYMOUTH, Mass. (UP)—About half of the passengers on the original Mayflower are buried in one cemetery in Plymouth. The Cole's Hill burying ground was made level by the settlers so the Indians would be unable to count the number of graves and learn the military strength of the survivors.

SUBSTITUTE DOCTOR
© 1957 by Elizabeth Seifert. Distributed by NEA Service. By ELIZABETH SEIFERT

UNLATCHING the gate at the foot of the Shelton lawn, he turned impulsively and said, "Valley, would you help me with the well-baby clinic?"

"At the hospital?" She looked and sounded and acted as if he'd suddenly extended a snake. She stepped backward, her eyes went round and her cheeks paled.

He put his hand on her arm. She shuddered. "I can't help it, Garde," she told him. "Hospitals give me the creeps. Doctors—the smell of medicine—" She shuddered again, and there was no pretense about it. Her version was real. Psychopathic it might have been, but real, just the same.

But why? So—he asked her. "Well, that's the way I feel. And it is not silly! Really, Garde, mine is an intellectual aversion, though perhaps extreme." She smiled at him, and he shook his head.

"I'll say for your comfort," she went on as they began to climb the steep slope of the lawn, "that my editors agree with you—and have decided that most of my readers would. They've made the whole subject of medicine taboo with me. And they ruthlessly blue pencil any trace of my attitude out of the things I write."

"But why, Valley? Why do you feel this special way toward my profession, toward us doctors?" "Oh," she said solemnly, "it has nothing to do with you doctors as men!"

He snorted again, and she laughed. "It is," he assured her, "entirely unnecessary for you to flirt with me, Valley Stanfield."

She stopped at the break in the hedge which separated the back lawns of their homes. "It's no trouble at all," she assured him, her voice cooing like a dove's.

It was the middle of the next week—Thursday morning—when Nan called to Garde and asked him if he'd come over and eat dinner at their house that night. He was working in the garage, moving things to make room for the car which he had bought.

"To dinner? Oh, sure. Rosebud's cooking—and your company..." He was happy to have her friendly again.

"You'll have to make out with the cooking. I won't be there. Patty Copeland's giving a shower for the Kibblers, the young ones. That's my crowd, you know, and I go to all such festivities. I thought you could keep Valley company. Dad has invited Dr. Lillard—our house is the only place the old gentleman goes."

DINNER was as delicious as Garde had come to expect Rosebud's meals to be; even a sandwich took on magic from her touch.

All through dinner, old Dr. Lillard had seemed to watch Valley anxiously, and she had sought to ignore his questioning gaze. That, decided Garde, was why Nan had asked Garde to "keep Valley company." All doctors made Valley nervous.

Though Garde was a doctor, too. He sighed and pushed his coffee cup away from him, then reached into his pocket for his pipe.

Valley wrinkled her nose, and he grinned. "I'll sit upwind. Or is it downwind? I fear I'm not nautical enough for these parts."

He lit his pipe and spoke clearly enough that the men might hear should they care to listen. "You didn't give me an answer last week, Valley," he said, "when I asked you to help me with my well-baby clinic."

"Did you really expect one?" "Why, of course. I asked you in good faith. I hoped you'd want to help with a thing of that sort. Surely its purpose would appeal to you. To make available to children under school age such medical service as would prevent the illnesses common to childhood, and to detect chronic things like the need for eye correction, hearing faults, deviations in heart function."

"SOME of the hospital nurses have agreed to give time to the clinic, and I hoped you'd be willing to keep our records and perhaps make such social service calls as would be desirable. It would give you a lot of satisfaction and—"

"Oh, for heaven's sake, Garde!" She jumped to her feet, her full skirts bobbing around her slender ankles. She walked to the rail, leaned her hands upon it and gazed out at the gathering dusk. "You know how I feel about all such things."

He puffed upon his pipe and nodded. "Yes, I know. But, seriously, Valley, you're a big girl now and should try to get over this aversion which you have for hospitals and doctors."

"Why?" she asked.

Garde well remembered Nan's story of her mother's death, but for his own purpose tonight—as

ously, Valley, you're a big girl now and should try to get over this aversion which you have for hospitals and doctors."

"Why?" she asked.

Garde well remembered Nan's story of her mother's death, but for his own purpose tonight—as ter, and that feeling alone would explain..."

She was furious. Her sandaled foot stamped her rage, her full skirts whirled in the high wind of her anger, her fingers curled into claws, and her eyes blazed. "Oh, the dear Lord deliver me!"

she cried in a tone of thin intensity, "not another psychologist!"

And then, against his will, a thought, and idea, came to him. Cold penetrated his innermost marrow.

Had Valley killed Ben Laurent? (To Be Continued)

Save with safety—where every $1 you save can be worth $2 to your family. Bank by Mail and Take Advantage of New Double Security Plan that Gives You

FREE LIFE INSURANCE

NO MEDICAL EXAMINATION and you still get full interest on your money

Now Every Man, Woman and Child Up to the Age of 60 Years Can Get a $5,000 Life Insurance Policy Absolutely Free—The Full Premium Paid by South Side Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago.

YOU STILL GET FULL INTEREST ON EVERY SINGLE DOLLAR IN YOUR ACCOUNT, AND YOUR ACCOUNT IS INSURED TO $10,000 BY THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION, A PERMANENT AGENCY OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

This new savings idea is called the Double Security Plan . . . and here's how it works:

For every dollar in your South Side Bank & Trust Co. savings account you get full interest on your money—in addition, South Side Bank & Trust Co. will pay the full cost of the premium for insurance equal to the full amount of your savings—up to a maximum of $5,000. For instance, if a man has $600 in his account, in the event of his death his account would automatically be increased to $1200—the $600 in his account plus the $600 worth of insurance paid for by South Side Bank & Trust Co. It's like giving your family $2 for every $1 that you save. That's why this plan is called the Double Security Plan.

Any person up to the age of 60 years with an account at South Side Bank & Trust Co. automatically qualifies for this insurance.

No Medical Examination

No need to take time off from work to be examined by a doctor. No medical examination is required because everyone automatically qualifies. Insurance remains in force until your 60th birthday or until your savings account is closed.

All depositors' money is insured to $10,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Accounts opened by July 15 earn full interest from July 1.

Use coupon (right) to make your deposit or to get more information. Or phone Mr. Baker at Livingston 8-1200.

Number of Engineering Students is Rising

URBANA, Ill. (UP)—More students are preparing for engineering careers this year than at any time since 1948, according to the American Society for Engineering Education.

The society quoted government figures showing that a total of nearly 243,000 students are enrolled in accredited engineering colleges.

The total almost equals the all-time high of 1947, when the engineering schools were jammed with World War II veterans, and the trend indicates a further increase.

Dr. W. L. Everett, Dean of the college of engineering at the University of Illinois and president of the society, said the "overwhelming problem" of engineering schools is a shortage of qualified teachers to meet predicted needs.

Matter of FACT

Britannica Junior Encyclopedia

The large, bulging eyes of the frog are separated from the mouth cavity by only a thin skin, and when closed they bulge inwardly. When the frog swallows an insect, it closes its eyes, and the inner bulging helps push the food down the throat. Seventeen species of frogs inhabit the United States, some living as long as 40 years.

CONVINCED the small-car field is your limit?

READ THIS STARTLING FACT

5 out of 10 Smaller Cars
wear a Pontiac Price Tag
—yet none gives you Any of Pontiac's Advantages

NO CAR AT ANY PRICE PERFORMS LIKE A PONTIAC... SMALLER CARS AREN'T EVEN IN THE RUNNING!

If it's proof you want, your Pontiac dealer is loaded with it—point-by-point engineering comparisons and on-the-record facts and figures. No smaller car is designed or powered to come close to Pontiac's eye-opening performance... alert, reflex-action response... and its smooth, effortless mastery of every driving demand. Try a demonstration drive—over your own route—in traffic or out on the highway. Put the facts on America's Number One Road Car to a test and you'll leave the little league for good!

WITH 4 TO 7 EXTRA INCHES OF WHEELBASE, PONTIAC OUTCLASSES THE SMALLER CARS IN RIDE AND ROADABILITY!

Pontiac's length is built in—not hung on! Smaller cars extend bumpers and fenders to look big, but Pontiac doesn't need camouflage... it is big! Its man-sized 122-inch wheelbase strides over the bumps instead of riding on them. This extra length, plus a carload of new suspension ideas, results in Pontiac's exclusive Level-Line Ride that no car at any price can surpass! Sample a few miles—and you'll never re-enlist in the small-car army again!

YOUR MONEY ACTUALLY BUYS UP TO 8.9% MORE SOLID CAR PER DOLLAR IN A PONTIAC!

The so-called "low-price" cars fall far short of Pontiac in actual, measurable car—and your Pontiac dealer has official specification comparisons to prove it! No smaller car comes even close to Pontiac's rock-solid construction... from its rugged X-member frame through every inch of its heavy-duty running gear Pontiac is muscle all the way! This extra heft means Pontiac holds the road like no smaller car you've ever driven... gives you a ride remarkably free of bounce, shake and noise! Put all the facts and figures to your own personal road test. Call your own shots and see how Pontiac's Precision-Touch Controls give you steering, braking and parking ease out of reach of the small jobs!

PONTIAC HAS ALWAYS COMMANDED A HIGH TRADE-IN DOLLAR!

When you put your money in a Pontiac you know your investment will be riding high for a long time to come! In fact, over the years, no car has a better reputation for being a top-demand used car. So before you sign on the dotted line for a smaller job at Pontiac's price—get the dollar-stretching good news your Pontiac dealer has waiting for you. Here in the easiest move of your life are the car and the value that will get you out of the small-car class for keeps!

Registration for First, Fifth Graders, All Newcomers in Schools Aug. 27, 28, 29

Parents of children who will enter the first and fifth grades in the Harrisburg Public Schools in September are reminded of their need of a medical and dental examination before that time. These health appraisals are required by law and are very helpful to the individual child in finding needs and evaluating his physical condition.

It is suggested by the school nurse, Ethel Mathias, that a urine specimen be taken to the family doctor in a clean jar with a screw on lid. Avoid bottles with corks that have been used for syrup or cough medicines etc. An early morning specimen is preferred.

Registration for first and fifth graders and all new comers in other grades except kindergarten is scheduled for August 27, 28 and 29, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m. in the nurse's office at Junior high with entrance on Webster street.

Parents will please bring the medical and dental forms the doctors give to them at the time of their child's examination and the child if possible to the nurse at the scheduled time. The fine cooperation between parents and school in the health program has made a contributing factor in the health of the community. The aim this year is for every boy and girl entering the first and fifth grades to have a medical and dental examination by their family doctors before Aug. 27.

Hornsby Likes St. Louis as Pennant Winner

Editor's Note: Baseball Hall of Famer Rogers Hornsby, former manager, most valuable player, and National League leading hitter for six straight years, now directs Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley's Youth Foundation. But Hornsby still has his old zest for outspoken hot stove session. Here is the way he sees this year's National League race at the mid-season mark.

By ROGERS HORNSBY
As Told to United Press

CHICAGO — I like St. Louis. Sure, I'm prejudiced a bit considering I played with and managed the Cards. But that isn't my prime reason for picking St. Louis. I'm just sick and tired of seeing the Dodgers win.

Don't get me wrong. Some of my best buddies are on the Dodgers. I'm just trying to look at the thing objectively. Think how it would perk up baseball in St. Louis to have the Cards win. Think what it would do for Milwaukee or Cincinnati to have the Braves or Reds come through.

So the Dodgers win again. Maybe baseball will pick up a bit more in Brooklyn but so what. The Dodgers keep saying they want to move to Los Angeles anyway.

But whether you like it or not you don't pick who should win. You pick who's going to win. As I see it, the race right now is so tight that if any one of six ball clubs went into a "slump" and dropped two or three games they could sink from first to fifth. I'd be better off with a roulette wheel than trying to figure a winner.

No "Born" Major Leaguer
Sure, I like the Cards. But that doesn't mean I think they're an odds-on favorite. It's at least a four club toss-up between St. Louis, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

What's more, you can't really count out Philadelphia, and New York is a dark horse. That just leaves the Cubs and Pirates and even they show a spark of life every now and then. You can't just throw your gloves out on the field against them and expect to chalk up a win.

It's all that even. If one of the big four goes on a hitting spree and wins a dozen or so straight it probably will have the thing sewed up. But just because it is so equal it isn't likely that any one team will get that potent.

Now then there's this rookie thing. These McDaniel kids have come through real fine for the Cards and rookies have been behind a couple of the other clubs showings.

But you know I've got a funny notion about that. I don't believe there's such a thing as a "born" major leaguer. Sure, a kid may be hot one year, maybe even two. But for my money, you don't make good in the majors until you've been up for at least five years.

That's my acid test. A kid stays up five years as a regular, then start judging him. By that measure, all of the National League clubs are going to lack balance. The thing is too spotty.

As I said, it's anybody's race I just sort of hope it isn't the Dodgers.

Musial to Play in Only One Game of Twin Bills; Yanks' Bob Grim Suffers Sore Arm

By United Press

The St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Yankees received some distressing news today as they prepared to open the second half of their pennant drives.

Stan Musial, with the full approval of manager Fred Hutchinson, announced he has participated in his last double-header for the Cardinals this season, while the Yankees learned that their ace reliever, Bob Grim, is suffering again with a sore arm.

Musial's decision to play only the first game of twin bills for the remainder of the season means his National League record for consecutive games played probably will be snapped Sunday when the Cardinals meet the Phillies in a double-header at Philadelphia.

The 36-year-old first baseman hasn't missed a game since the opening day of the 1952 season, appearing in 861 consecutive contests, but admits those long, drawn-out double-headers are starting to catch up with him.

Talks It Over
"It's been kind of a struggle playing two games in one day," Musial explained as the Cardinals arrived in New York for the opening of a 13-game eastern trip against the Giants. "I felt like I was getting a little tired, so I talked it over with Hutch and we both felt I'd probably be more valuable to the club just playing the first game of double-headers."

The Yankees, meanwhile, learned of Grim's recurrent arm trouble as they prepared to launch a 12-game road trip tonight at Kansas City. The soreness is located in the right forearm, near the elbow, as in the past. Grim twice had to be placed on the disabled list, in 1955 and last year, because of this chronic condition.

The big right hander, who won eight games and lost three in helping the Yankees gain a 2-1-2 game lead over the first half of the campaign, is hopeful that the arm "will come around" with a proper rest. As a result, manager Casey Stengel plans to keep Grim out of the three-game Kansas City series with the hope he'll be ready for Sunday's crucial twin-bill against the White Sox at Chicago.

Chisox Entertain Senators
The White Sox, also hit by a recent wave of injuries, swing back into action tonight by entertaining the Washington Senators. Boston is at Detroit for an afternoon game, while Baltimore is at Cleveland for a twilight-night double-header.

Another twilight-night twinbill in the NL pits the Chicago Cubs against the Phillies at Philadelphia. Cincinnati visits Brooklyn and Milwaukee is at Pittsburgh in other arc-lighters.

The second-place Braves fell three games back of pace-setting St. Louis last night by suffering a 5-2 setback at the hands of the Pirates in the only major league action. A two-run, inside-the-park homer by Bob Skinner and a three-run single by Gene Baker carried the Pirates to their fourth straight victory. Bob Purkey allowed only six hits, including a two-run homer by Eddie Mathews, in posting his ninth victory. Bob Buhl was the loser.

Barger's, Dairy Brand, Buena Vista And Ridgway Win In Kiwanis Play

Barger's Accountants massacred Social Brethren, 40-1, Dairy Brand blasted Coca-Cola, 18-1, Buena Vista topped Galatia, 7-6, and Ridgway defeated Shawneetown, 9-4, in Kiwanis play Wednesday.

Bishop, Williams and Keltner each had four hits and Emery pitched a three-hitter as Barger's won over Social Brethren. Milligan and Emery had three hits, Hopson, Coffee and Raymer had two each and Dobson hit safely once to round out the winners' 25-hit attack. Bennett tripled, Dillard doubled and Swelck singled for the losers.

M. Johnson pitched a one-hitter and Johnson, Mitchell, Welleson, Morse and Zeigler had two hits apiece to give Dairy Brand an 18-1 victory over Coca-Cola. Gulley, Turner and Utter also singled for the victors. Reed had the Cokes' only hit. Booms was the losing pitcher.

Willie Hartack Hurt in Spill

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, Ill. — Top jockey Willie Hartack was recovering from severe cuts and bruises today, thankful things weren't any worse.

Hartack, the nation's leading rider with 185 wins to date this year, was spilled in the first race at Arlington Park Wednesday.

At first it was feared he had suffered a fractured vertebra and would be sidelined "indefinitely." A later re-examination of X-rays revealed there had not been a fracture. Doctors said Hartack probably would be ready to ride again within a week.

Hartack tried to persuade the doctors to let him out by Saturday so he could ride Iron Liege in the $100,000 Arlington classic. But they apparently told the spunky veteran that he wasn't as well as all that.

Dr. Herman J. Carr, Arlington Park physician, said Hartack had a bad bruise in the area of his right kidney and abrasions on the right side of his forehead.

Hartack was thrown from Smoke-Me-Now, a 2-year-old filly. The accident occurred when Smoke-Me-Now apparently tripped on a turn, somersaulting and throwing Hartack to the outside. He was sprawled on the track while six horses pounded past.

Buena Vista tallied five times in the fifth inning to score a 7-6 win over Galatia. Buchanan was the winning pitcher giving up six safeties and 10 free passes. Beggs had a double and two singles, Nelson doubled and Ellis, Hefner, Denny, Pickford and Fleming hit safely once for the winners. D. Woolard, the losing hurler, had two hits for Galatia.

Cotton and Jones combined to pitch a one-hitter, fanning eight and walking 11, as Ridgway beat Shawneetown, 9-4. For the winners at bat Vaughn doubled twice, Milligan tripled and singled, Cotton doubled and singled and Kirby and Dailey singled twice. Patton had the lone hit, a triple, for Shawneetown.

Fewer Taxpayers Require Help in Filling Out Returns

WASHINGTON — Taxpayers are getting better at filling out income tax forms. Internal Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington said the government saved $3,536,000 this year as a result.

In 1955, almost 15 million citizens required help with their forms at a cost of almost seven million dollars. Twelve thousand agents spent 360,000 man-hours giving such assistance.

Last year only 11 million taxpayers sent out an SOS to internal revenue, Harrington said, cutting costs of assistance service to $3,264,000.
